phở
SPECIALTIES FROM VIETNAM

phở (pronounced “fo”)

... is a traditional soup and the national dish of Vietnam. It is available at almost every street corner and is commonly eaten for breakfast, but also for lunch and dinner. The soup is served in a bowl and, besides a rich broth, contains rice noodles and thinly sliced beef or chicken. It can be seasoned to taste with fresh herbs and fish sauce.

Food in Vietnam is much more than mere nourishment; it is a high art of living. Vietnamese cuisine is therefore among the most diverse, light and healthy in the world. The cornerstones are rice, the fish sauce “nuoc mam” and fresh herbs. We always cook with fresh ingredients. Fat is used only sparingly.

IN VIETNAM YOU DON'T HAVE TO SEARCH FOR FOOD, IT SEARCHES FOR YOU.
